

Department.....Sociology.....

Year 7
Year 8
Year 9
Year 10
Syllabus and past papers web link: http://www.wjec.co.uk/qualifications/sociology/sociology-gcse/#past-papers-section The year 10 course introduces students to the subject of Sociology. Through exploring students' own experience they are able to build an understanding on what Sociology explores. Topics studied are: Introduction to Socialisation, Identity and Culture Social Inequality
Year 11
Syllabus website and past papers web link: http://www.wjec.co.uk/qualifications/sociology/sociology-gcse/#past-papers-section In year 11 students question the running and structure of society through exploring the topics: Crime and Deviance The Family
Year 12
Syllabus and past papers web link: http://www.ocr.org.uk/qualifications/as-a-level-gce-sociology-h181-h581/ The AS-level course is designed to provide candidates with an introduction to sociology that emphasises contemporary social processes and social changes, whilst also fostering an ethos of critical inquiry within candidates. The specification adopts a thematic approach, covering:

The formation of culture and identity, Media, Research methods
The Family

Year 13

Syllabus and past paper web link: <http://www.ocr.org.uk/qualifications/as-a-level-gce-sociology-h181-h581/>

The thematic approach from AS-level is followed on exploring power, control and social stratification at A2 level. Students are encouraged to explore the social world and to reflect on their own social experiences. Topics covered include:

Crime and Deviance

Social Inequality in Gender, Age, Class and Ethnicity, Research methods

For more information please e-mail: scrozie@ravensbourne.info